Palouse Habitat for Humanity receives grant from Laura Moore Cunningham Foundation, Inc. to purchase security cameras for the Palouse Habitat ReStore

Moscow, ID (Monday, August 26, 2024) -- The Laura Moore Cunningham Foundation, Inc. has awarded Palouse HFH $20,000 to purchase a security system for the Palouse Habitat ReStore in Moscow .

“Funds raised at the Palouse Habitat ReStore support Palouse Habitat’s home building and repair programs, helping us serve those in need of safe, affordable, accessible housing around the region,” shared Jennifer Wallace, Executive Director. “We appreciate the Laura Moore Cunningham Foundation’s support to purchase security equipment and cameras for the ReStore.”

“The new system, being installed today, is customized for the ReStore with high-resolution cameras and emergency alert for the staff, will help ensure protection for our team and minimize the risk of loss. We want to make sure the ReStore is raising as much as possible to support Habitat’s home building and repair programs.”

About Palouse Habitat for Humanity

Palouse Habitat for Humanity, the local affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, builds affordable housing in Latah and Whitman counties. Its mission is to bring people together to build homes, communities, and hope. Construction on Habitat Homes #24 and #25 will be built in Moscow, ID and Palouse, WA, and the Home Repair crew averages one accessibility improvement a week around the region. Habitat projects are built with volunteer labor and help from the homeowner. The Palouse Habitat ReStore sells donated building materials and furniture. It is a critical source of funds to support Habitat programs, as well as providing the community with an affordable option for home improvement and decor.
